

One of the reasons for conducting a recitation competition is to introduce original Saṁskritam texts to children (and their parents). Ramayanam is one of the oldest epics in world literature. Sage Valmiki (known as aadikaviH or first poet) composed this treasure house of knowledge which defines Indian culture. Ramayanam consists of seven kandas (cantos) and 500 sargas, with a total of nearly 24,000 shlokas. Of these shlokas, Maharshi Valmiki has beautifully summarized the entire Ramayanam in the first 100 shlokas of Balakanda, the first book, which are also known as Samkshepa Ramayanam. During this year's recitation competition, participants will memorize some of the first 25 slokas of Samkshepa Ramayanam according to their age groups.
